

IT'S YOUR DUTY TO JOIN SAAFA!

For Camaraderie

- Have fun and re unite socially with your friends and fellow airmen at gatherings like lunches, dinners, air shows, the SAAF museums etc.

To remember the proud SAAF history

- Join in the celebrations and remembering of famous airmen, battles, events and aircraft, and more importantly those who have paid the ultimate price with their lives to protect our freedom.

To support the image of the SAAF

- Be part of the extended family, as a friend of the SAAF and General Aviation. Join the SAAF in their celebrations and parades, and provide support for their new acquisitions and ventures.

To provide benevolent support for the needy

- Many of your friends and ex SAAF members and spouses have fallen on hard times, mostly through no fault of their own. SAAFA can make a difference by supplementing their income and making life a little more comfortable. Help your friends, because one day it could be you!
